

Tentative Outline

Special Thematic Issue for The Open Public Health journal

Title of the Thematic Issue: "Children, Young and Adult People's Mental Health in school environment"

Guest Editor: Dr. Christian S. Ugwuanyi

- Scope of the Thematic Issue:

Research around this thematic issue will be limited to those that will talk to the mental health issues of children, young and adult people in school environment. Specifically, the participants of any of such research should be limited to children within the age of 0 to 9 years, in-school adolescents of ages within 12-16 years, university undergraduate and postgraduate students, Teachers in primary and post primary schools and university workers.

Keywords: Adult, young and Children, Health needs, mental health, School environment, Intervention strategies, Working environment

Sub-topics:

The sub-topics to be covered within the issue should be provided:

- Promoting mental health among schooling children
- Promoting mental health among in-school adolescents
- Working environment and workers' mental health
- Mental health issues among working population in the University
- School environment and young people's mental health
- Mental health issues among working population in the primary schools
- Mental health issues among working population in the post primary schools

Tentative titles of the articles:

- Management of mental health problems among primary school teachers using rational emotive behavior therapy.
- Mental health needs of undergraduate students in a Nigerian University.
- Relationship between young students' knowledge of environmental education and their mental health disposition towards climate change actions.
- Suicidal experience, prevalence and risk factors among University students.
- Predictors of Violence Behavior among Undergraduates in the Universities in Enugu State, Nigeria.
- Effectiveness of CBT on anxiety disorders among engineering undergraduates.
- Prevalence and predictors of suicidal ideation and behaviors among students of tertiary institutions in Adamawa State, Northeast Nigeria.
- Linking career anxiety and suicide tendencies among university undergraduates.
- Remediation for effect of Domestic Violence on Depression and Suicidal Behavior among Married Female University students.

Schedule:

- Thematic issue submission deadline: 31st December 2023

Contacts:

Guest Editor Name: Dr. Christian S. Ugwuanyi

Affiliation: University of the Free State, South Africa

Email: UgwuanyiCS@ufs.ac.za